BRUVOS CC - NOTICE

2 About the insurer

a) Name, physical and postal address and telephone numbers	(Details as per the policy disclosure notice).
b) Telephone number of compliance department of the insurer
c) Type of policy involved:	Refer to schedule
d) Extent of premium obligations you assume as a policyholder:	You agreed to pay the premium. Details of the amount of premium due and frequency of payment are contained in the policy schedule.

Manner of payment of premium, due date and consequences of non-payment.

The manner of premium payment and due date are reflected in the policy schedule.

Period of Grace for premium payment -

If you are paying for personal/domestic insurances you are entitled to a period of 15 days from the premium due date in which to pay your premium. If you do not pay the premium within 15 days of the due date, cover will be cancelled from midnight the day before due date. Where the premium is payable monthly, this 15 day extension only applies from the 2nd month after your policy is issued.

- e) If you have a commercial policy and the greater of your total annual turnover or total assets is less than R2 000 000 the Policyholder Protection Rules will still apply to you and you are entitled to a period of 15 days from the premium due date in which to pay your premium. If you do not pay the premium within 15 days of the due date, cover will be cancelled from midnight the day before due date. Where the premium is payable monthly, this 15 day extension only applies from the 2nd month after your policy is issued.

If you have a commercial policy and the greater of your total annual turnover or total assets is greater than R2 000 000 the Policyholder Protection Rules might not apply to you and you will need to refer to the specific insurers wording/schedule for how they treat non-payment of premiums.

Stop payment of premium - If the premium is not paid on the date that it was due to be paid as a result of having been stopped by you, cover will be cancelled from midnight on the day before due date.

3 Other matters of importance

- a) You must be informed of any material changes to the information referred to in paragraph 1 and 2.
- b) If the information in paragraphs 1 and 2 was given orally, it must be confirmed in writing within 30 days.
- c) If any complaint to the intermediary or insurer is not resolved to your satisfaction, you may submit the complaint to the relevant ombudsman.
- d) Polygraph/lie detector test is not obligatory in the event of a claim & the failure thereof may not be the sole reason for repudiating a claim. If premium is paid by debit order:
- e) i) it may only be in favour of one person and may not be transferred without your approval; and
ii) the insurer must inform you at least 30 days before the cancellation thereof, in writing, of its intention to cancel such debit order.
- f) The insurer and not the intermediary must give reasons for repudiating your claim.
- g) Insurers may not cancel your insurance merely by informing your intermediary. There is an obligation to send the notice to you.
- h) You are entitled to a copy of the policy free of charge.

4 Warning

- a) Do not sign any blank or partially completed application form.
- b) Complete all forms in ink.
- c) Keep all documents handed to you.
- d) Make note as to what is said to you.
- e) Don't be pressurised to buy the product.
- f) Incorrect or non-disclosure by you of relevant facts may influence an insurer on any claims arising from your contract of insurance.
